

HERALD CAMERA-MEN TELL THEIR STORY

When the R-33 Returned Home After Runaway Flight

(By Pacific & Atlantic)

Buffeted by terrific gales, the British airship R-33 won through when she was carried several hundred miles after being torn from mooring mast at Pulham, England. Courage of 21 aboard never faltered, and they sent out cheery radios. Note how nose is deflated.

Jackie and His Pal

(By Pacific & Atlantic)

Jackie Coogan, with his long jeans on, and Big Bill Edwards, former Harvard football star, about twenty times as large as Jackie, attracted as much attention as the bride and groom at Lee-Glaenzer wedding in New York.

As Girl Scout

(By Pacific & Atlantic)

Mrs. Calvin Coolidge, honorary president of the Girl Scouts of America, wore her scout uniform for the first time at the spring dance of the Girl Scouts association of the District of Columbia.

Bride of Brides

(By Pacific & Atlantic)

The most beautiful and radiant bride of the post-Easter season was Kendall Lee, descendant of a very old American family, when she became the wife of Jules Glaenzer, vice-president of a well-known jewelry firm at New York.

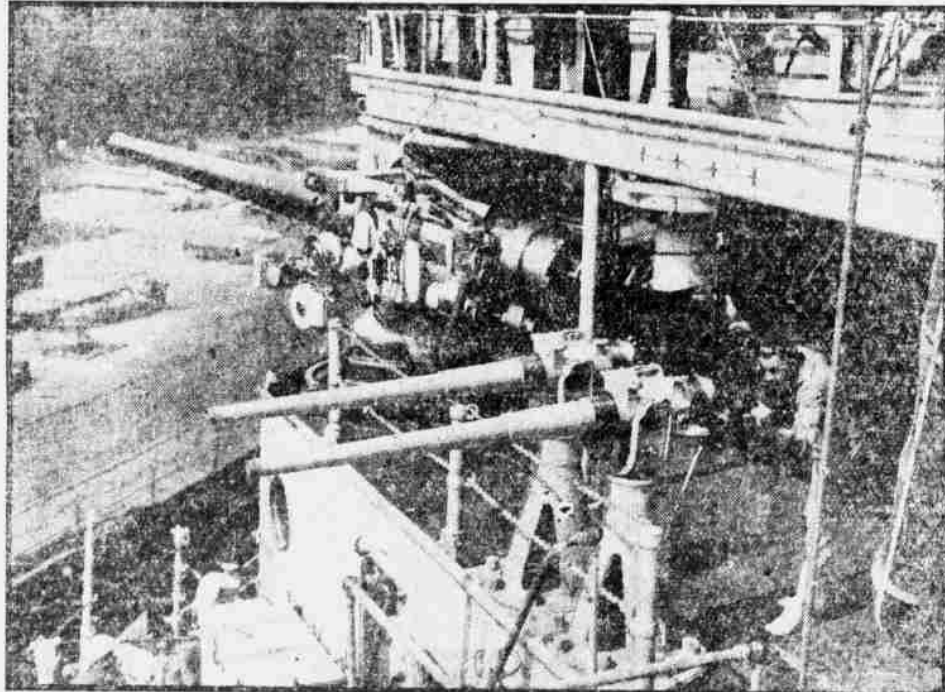

Broadcasts

(By Pacific & Atlantic)

The leading speaker of Pan-American union, broadcasting from station WRC, Washington, D. C., was Gen. John J. Pershing, recently retired. Black Jack is rarely photographed in evening dress.

Work Aplenty Keeping a Battleship in Shipshape

(By Pacific & Atlantic)

Long, graceful salute guns of the Arkansas were trained on distant object as seamen aligned them in Brooklyn, N. Y., navy yard, where dreadnaught got general overhauling. Note big gun in back.

Date Set

(By Pacific & Atlantic)

Lucille Upton (above), sister of the Countess Gosta Morner (Peggy Joyce), is to be married to Martin Jones jr., son of the millionaire flour man, on Sept. 1.

Moral: Save Your Nickles and Your Dimes

(By Pacific & Atlantic)

Built on nickles, the telephone company's new 36-story skyscraper, is rapidly rising on New York's waterfront to vie in grandeur with the Woolworth tower (center), built on nickles and dimes. Quarter century ago Park row building (right) was tallest in New York.

Nurses Join Children in Fight Against Smallpox

Mrs. Nash's Prince Arrested

(By Pacific & Atlantic)

Prince Sabit Bey who for four weeks was the husband of Mrs. Jean Nash, the best dressed woman in Europe, was arrested in Paris on a charge of swindling automobile dealers, a jeweler and others out of more than $10,000. The couple are shown above while on brief Paris honeymoon.

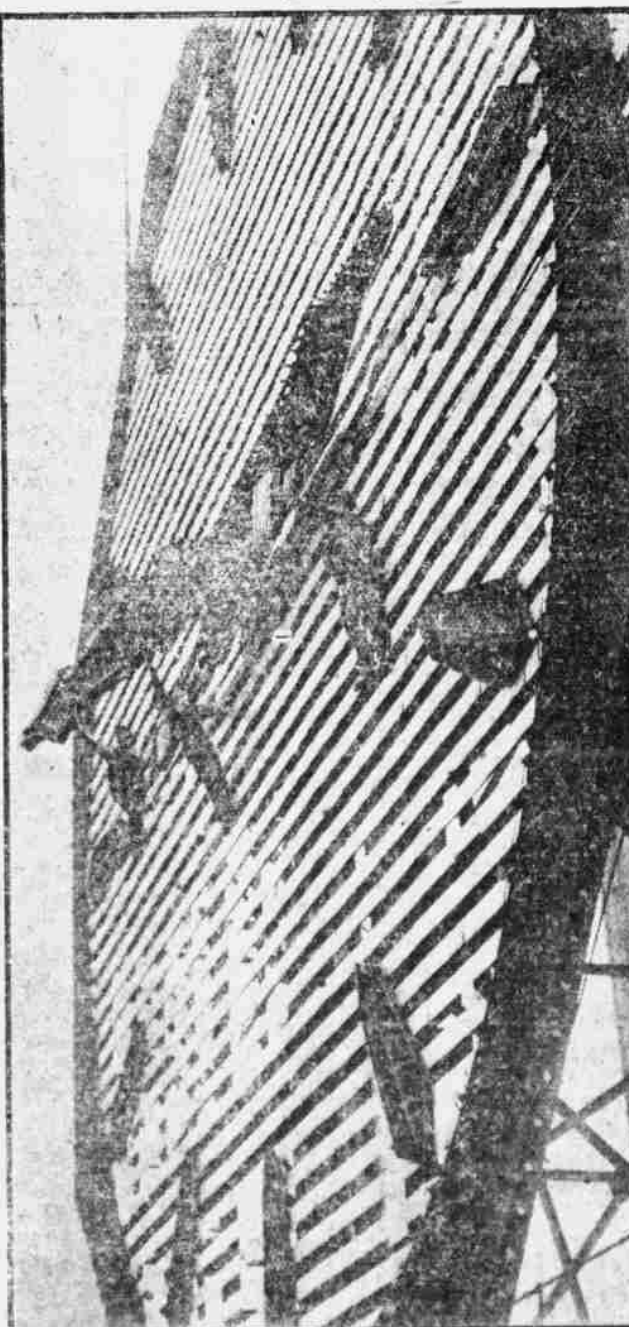

Before they vaccinated children in schools, nurses were themselves inoculated in Jersey City, N. J., smallpox scare. Photo shows Dr. A. J. Dolan of health board vaccinating Elise Plumer, Eleanor Carey, Anna Cullio, Hans Smith and Elizabeth Straley (l. to r.).

Switches

Formerly a Klansman in Herrin, Ill., scene of the worst of K. Klux Klan battles, Marshall McCormick, newly elected mayor, was put in office on an anti-K. K. ticket.

Saving Daylight

The gigantic hands of the Colgate clock, the largest timepiece in the world, at Jersey City, N. J., were set ahead an hour for daylight saving time by workmen who looked like pigmies in comparison with hands.

Beauty Entry

(By Pacific & Atlantic)

Miss Mary Pannaci, 16-year-old Red Bank, N. J., high school girl, who won beauty contest among girls of Redbank, will strive for title of Miss America at the annual beauty pageant at Atlantic City, N. J. this year. Good luck, Mary.

Home for Her Wedding

(By Pacific & Atlantic)

Among numerous notables arriving aboard the Aquitania in New York on recent trip were Eleanor, daughter of Sir Ashley Sparks, director of the Cunard lines, and Lady Sparks. According to reports current in society in United States and abroad, Eleanor Sparks will become bride of Jordan L. Mott at Oyster Bay, N. Y., June 7.

(Copyright: 1925: Pacific & Atlantic Photos, Inc.)